Oxford Machine Learning Summer School OxML 2023

This is to certify that Brennan Lodge has won the Finance/ESG competition as part of the ML x Cases
module

The Finance/ESG task involved developing a machine learning model capable of accurately classifying and distinguishing between environmental, social, and governance (ESG) related content within financial documents and reports. The winners demonstrated advanced data science proficiency, in-depth understanding of ESG metrics, innovative problem-solving skills, and the ability to apply these in creating impactful, real-world sustainability-focused solutions.

Oxford Machine Learning Summer School is organised by AI for Global Goals and in partnership with CIFAR and the University of Oxford's Deep Medicine Program.
